Be a DJ this summer with 3

Filed in Arts, Ents, EventsTechnology on May 31, 2007

3, Ireland's mobile media network, is offering music fans the chance to show off their DJ skills with Sony Ericsson portable speakers. Available Free from 3 when you buy a Sony Ericsson W850i and Sony Ericsson z610i, the 'snap on' and 'compact' portable speakers are the mobile phone accessory perfect for blasting out tunes this summer.

3's funky Sony Ericsson 'Snap on' Speakers are now available in tangerine orange and disco gold or the portable, 'compact', speakers in black and white with retro acid-orange edging. 3's portable speakers for music lovers easily hook up to Sony Ericsson handsets for easy listening.

With access to over 1million tracks from the 3MusicStore™, 3's customers can download tracks to their handset to show off their DJ skills via 3's portable speakers creating the complete mobile entertainment system.

Graeme Slattery, Head of Music at 3 said: 'The Sony Ericsson mobile speakers bring the 80's ghettoblasters right up to date and come in handy when you want to share music with mates, on the go.'

Sony Ericsson Speakers are available from 3 stores nationwide free with the purchase of a Sony Ericsson W850i or Sony Ericsson z610i while stocks last. Also available individually for EUR45 in participating 3G stores, Carphone Warehouse and by calling 1800 330 333 or at three.ie
