

February 18, 2010

National Energy Sector Event In Dublin Tomorrow

Filed in EnvironmentalEnergyConferences & Industry Exhibitions on February 18, 2010

ATTN NEWS AND PHOTO DESKS

For Immediate Release

National Energy Sector Event In Dublin Tomorrow

Time: 10am-3pm (registration 9am)

Date: Friday 19th February 2010

Location: Red Cow Moran Hotel Dublin

The BER (Building Energy Rating) Assessors Association of Ireland will hold its AGM and a series of workshops tomorrow (Friday 19th February 2010) in the Red Cow Moran Hotel, Dublin.

Workshops will be hosted by Sustainable Energy Ireland (A review of Technical Documents issued over the course of the year); Drayton (Use of Controls in Energy Efficient Heating Systems); Aeroboard (Application of external insulation to NSAI standards); and systemlink (Interlinking Heating Systems). Information stands will be hosted by FÁS, Flo Gas, Kingspan Insulation, Kingspan Solar, OWL and ecological Building Systems. The workshops are open to members and non-members of the BER Assessors Association of Ireland.

For more on the upcoming AGM and workshops see www.berassoc.ie

NOTES TO EDITOR:

- Photograph and interview opportunities will be provided. Members of the media interested in attending should contact Mark Dunphy of Dunphy Public Relations on 086-8534900 or media@dunphypr.com.
- Ray Hennessy of the BER Assessors Association of Ireland is available for comment/interview on 086-8977329.
- Directions - The Red Cow Moran Hotel in Clondalkin is located on the Naas Road as you approach the Red Cow Interchange.
- The BER Assessor Association of Ireland is a voluntary body, un-incorporated and non-profit making. The BER Assessors Association of Ireland was formed in June 2008, comprised of assessors who believed a non-profit association acting on behalf of its members was required. The objective of the Association is to provide an independent voice to represent BER assessors.