Limerick Races Twilight Racing - Final Furlong

Filed in SportTourismMusic Events on July 13, 2010

The Irish Daily Mirror Twilight Racing at Limerick Races reaches its climax on Thursday evening 22nd July, performing on the evening will be The Camembert Quartet, fresh from their recent gig at Brian O'Driscoll's wedding to Amy Huberman. An action packed National Hunt card will get under starters orders at 5.45pm with over EUR52,000 in prize money, as one of the last racing preparations for the Galway Festival there is sure to be excellent fields and the opportunity for a good gamble.

The Camembert Quartet are one of Ireland's best loved live acts, having wowed the crowd at the reciprocal meeting last year, we felt the feedback was so positive that we had to invite them back. As the new show band to the ever popular The RTE Late Late Show their energetic and vocally brilliant act has seen them elevate their ever growing status in the past year.

To help you bet on the first winner Limerick Racecourse have included a FREE EUR5 Betting voucher into the EUR20 admission and then hope you get a 10-1 winner! Keep your eyes open for the 2 for 1 Admission offers which can be picked up in local press, online and through the flyers which are being distributed by Limerick Racecourse and the Live 95fm Shadow Crew. There are a number of excellent packages to whet the appetite, the EUR38 BBQ package including Admission, BBQ Meal, Racecard, EUR5 Bet and Free Pint, there is the reserved EUR50 BBQ Package info as above, but will be served in the Panoramic Restaurant. We then have the crème de la crème, the EUR75 Panoramic Restaurant including: Admission, Racecard, 4 Course Dinner, Free EUR5 Bet and Free Drink, and private Tote facilities. When all is finished a courtesy bus operated by the Sin Bin nightclub will take all patrons to the Sin Bin with Free admission where the party can continue to the early morn..
